

THE PLAYBOY GIRLS NEXT DOOR

»» "ONCE IS NOT ENOUGH" the old saying goes, and it's as true about what happens in front of the camera as it is for what goes on behind closed doors. Which is why after Playboy's lovely stars of the hit E! TV series The Girls Next Door graced the 2007 Guitar World Buyer's Guide, we knew we had to have them back for an encore.

Apparently the first time was good for them, too. The sizzling trio of Kendra, Holly and Bridget happily returned for a follow-up, ready to cavort for the cameras with some of the most smokin' new musical gear of the year. If you like hot gear and even hotter women, this year's Guide is for you.

As for the Girls—we never imagined the second time could be better than the first. Ladies, what do you say we make this a standing date?
